(Wauwatosa)... Scott Walker; elected three times as Milwaukee County Executive on a record of tax relief and spending cuts, today endorsed Alberta Darling for State Senate because she is the only fiscal conservative in the race.

Walker said the difference between the candidates is clear, and his endorsement is based on knowledge from serving in the legislature with both Darling and her opponent Sheldon Wasserman.

“Alberta Darling is committed to holding the line on taxes and government spending,” Walker said. “Rep. Wasserman says he is a fiscal conservative, but no matter how hard he tries to run from his record, he is the tax-and-spend candidate.”

Alberta Darling signed the Americans for Tax Reform Pledge to oppose any tax increase and has always voted to freeze property taxes. In contrast, Sheldon Wasserman has violated his American for Tax Reform Pledge and voted against freezing taxes.

As Milwaukee County Executive, Walker has written six consecutive budgets that do not raise the property tax levy from the previous year.
