WASSERMAN BAD MEDICINE FOR WISCONSIN TAXPAYERS

Four More Years of Alberta Darling is Prescription for Ailing Taxpayers!

(Wauwatosa) - According to Milwaukee County Executive Scott Walker, the prescription for ailing Wisconsin taxpayers is to re-elect Alberta Darling to the State Senate, not Sheldon Wasserman.

"The working families of Wisconsin are in pain. The cost of food and gas is going up. Unfortunately Sheldon Wasserman's record is tough to swallow," said Walker, who recently introduced his seventh straight Milwaukee County budget without a tax levy increase.

Walker pointed out that Wasserman voted against the property tax freeze twice, voted against the Taxpayer Protection Act three times, and is open to a special Milwaukee North Shore tax, and a tax increase on hospitals.

"Sheldon Wasserman talks a good game on taxes, but what has he really done to protect the taxpayers?" said Walker, "Alberta Darling has actually served in positions of leadership and has worked to protect the taxpayer."
